PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Rehabilitative Confinement Program (RCP) is an alternative sentencing option for adult (18+) offenders of Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol and/or Drugs (DUI/DUID), Domestic Violence, and other non-violent offenders deemed suitable for the program by the sentencing judge. RCP requires residential confinement.

PROGRAM COMPONENTS AND SERVICES:

- Residential confinement for duration of sentence.
- Length of confinement determined by sentencing judge in increments of 7, 14, 21, or 28 days.
- Twenty-five (25) hours of Intensive Outpatient substance abuse treatment per week.
- Forty (40) hours of Community Service/Sheriff's Work Alternative Program (SWAP) per week of confinement.
- Health and Wellness Education.
- Involvement in self-help support groups (AA, NA).
- Assessment for Domestic Violence and Gambling.
- Family Component.
- Breathalyzer and urine drug testing.

Certified treatment professionals, trained in criminogenic behaviors, design treatment plans to address the individual needs of the participants plus facilitate all individual and didactic/therapeutic group sessions.
